2015 College of Architecture Scholarship Application

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 30, 2015—COMPLETE THE ON-LINE APPLICATION FORM

COLLEGE-WIDE SCHOLARSHIPS

Students can be considered for all twelve College of Architecture scholarships by filling out and submitting the University scholarship application for Continuing Students at http://scholarships.tamu.edu/Apply-for-Scholarships

3D/International, Inc. Endowed Scholarship
Established by 3D/International, Inc. and awarded to fulltime undergraduate or graduate students in good standing pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University:

- demonstrating an interest in the management of professional design and construction firms
- must have demonstrated leadership in studio and class projects, professional student organizations, and/or other extra-curricular activities

Center for Heritage Conservation Graduate Scholarships
Established by the Professional Fellows of the Center for Heritage Conservation and the CHC Advisory Council:

- must include an approved course plan for pursuing the Certificate in Historic Preservation or,
- for incoming graduate students, submit a statement of interest in a career in historic preservation

History Maker Homes Endowed Scholarships
(ARCH, COSC & LAUP Students)
Established by Bryan Mitchell ’70 and the Mitchell family, awarded to worthy and deserving students in the departments of architecture, construction science, and landscape architecture & urban planning pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University.

- architecture and urban planning with a demonstrated interest in residential development construction and design
- demonstrated by past or current enrollment in a residential construction or design course
- enrollment in the History Maker Homes Residential Studio
- participation in a land development or real estate seminar or workshop, or
- active membership in the NAHB student chapter
- provide an attachment summarizing your participation in residential construction; design courses; land development; real estate seminar; workshop; or a NAHB student chapter.

International Facility Management Association Houston Chapter Endowed Scholarship
Established by the International Facility Management Association Houston Chapter, awarded to a full time graduate student in good standing who is studying facility management and pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University.

- Interest in Facility Management including courses taken and future career plans
- extra-curricular activities while in college
- financial need

Jonathan King Memorial Student Research Endowed Scholarship
Established by Cynthia "Toni" King, family, friends and professional associates in honor and memory of Jonathan King, awarded to a full time undergraduate or graduate student in good standing pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University.

- must pursue at least one supervised research project in the CRS Center, studying and analyzing leadership and management in the design and construction industry.
- Provide a short description of the project you intend to pursue with your application if awarded this scholarship.

Charles E. Peterson Preservation Scholarship
Established by Carrie Zaboroski ’95 and friends of the Center for Heritage Conservation, and awarded to a full-time student in good standing pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University.

- student must be pursuing studies and/or a professional career in historic preservation
- provide an attachment summarizing your coursework or career plans in historic preservation.
Jeffery T. ‘78 and Shelley E. Potter ‘78 Endowed Scholarship
ARCH only
Established by Jeff and Shelley Potter to benefit students in undergraduate programs in the Departments of Architecture and Landscape Architecture & Urban Planning.
• Preference shall be to non-Texas residents of the United States.
• Undergraduate students

Col. James E. Ray ‘63 Endowed Scholarship
ARCH only
Established by alumni, colleagues and friends to recognize the accomplishments of Colonel James E. Ray ‘63 and awarded on a rotating basis to a full-time student in one of the four College of Architecture departments.
• academic achievement
• extracurricular activities
• financial need

R. Joseph Reeves Endowed Memorial Scholarship
COSC only
Established by the Roy T. Reeves family trust, for a full-time student in the College of Architecture in one of the four departments
• based on academic achievement
• In good academic standing

Mabel and Clarence Rinard, AIA Scholarship
ARCH or COSC only
Established by Stephen and Carillon Rinard for a full-time student in the College of Architecture
• Member of the Corps of Cadets or Singing Cadets if Corps membership cannot be fulfilled
• Junior level or above student in the Department of Architecture interested in pursuing architecture as a profession
• Preference to residents of Texas of Kansas
• If student in architecture cannot be identified, then consideration to construction science student junior level or higher pursuing construction as a profession
• If graduate student is chosen, that student shall have completed four years as a member of the Corps of Cadets in their undergraduate studies.

Arnoldo Robelo ’83 and David E. Baker ’83 Endowed Scholarship
Established by Arnoldo Robelo ’83 and David E. Baker ’83, awarded to a student or students planning to participate in the college’s study abroad program with a GPA of at least 3.0 in their major.
• First preference shall be for a student pursuing a dual degree in both the department of architecture and construction science
• Second preference shall be for a student pursuing a degree from either the department of architecture or construction science.

TOMFRA/Raiford L. Stripling Memorial Scholarship for the Advancement of Preservation
Established by the Texas Old Missions and Forts Restoration Association and awarded to a current or incoming graduate student in good standing pursuing a degree from the College of Architecture at Texas A&M University.
• student must have completed or commit to a paper on a subject concerning or relating to, preservation in the State of Texas that shall at the option of TOMFRA, be presented at TOMFRA’s annual meeting
• student shall be pursuing or have been admitted to the current certificate program in historic preservation at TAMU
• if no such student is eligible, alternate consideration shall be given to a student pursuing a graduate degree in architecture at TAMU and have a demonstrated interest in historic preservation as determined by the selection committee
• provide an attachment summarizing the current or proposed paper focusing on preservation in the State of Texas.